NASHVILLE EXCHANGE

Café and Catering

Lisa Hattaway has owned the Nashville Exchange since it first started as a book store in 1996 in a small building on Boddie Street. Hattaway added a coffee shop in 1998, after she bought the Washington Street building. In 2001, Hattaway added the cafe.

Whether you're hungry for breakfast or lunch, you'll find an array of options at the Nashville Exchange Monday through Saturday.

Catering is available on site at the restaurant or at other local venues. Options from a light to full menu are available. Holiday functions, baby showers, wedding receptions are just a few of the events Hattaway caters.

The Exchange is now booking holiday parties. "It's not too early to reserve your date," said Hattaway.

The organization has two locations in downtown Nashville featuring clothing for the entire family, accessories, household items, electronics, home decor, furniture and a specialty holiday shop inside the furniture location.

TRASH 2 TREASURES RMT

More than just antiques!

A mother and son team launched their business, Trash 2 Treasuresrmt, in 2019. The beginnings took place in one room of a relative's outdoor building as they started their collection of what-nots while seeking trusted resources for buying future inventory.

Owners Michael and Phyllis Aycock eventually moved into their first location in Rocky Mount and continued to grow their business.

Today you'll find the shop nestled in downtown Nashville, located in the former Nashville Furniture building, boasting 7,000 square feet filled with treasures, big and small, from antiques, wood furniture, glassware, prints, rustic and traditional decor and more. "We like to think that we are more than just an antique shop," notes the owners on their business profile. One step into the shop indeed proves the statement to be accurate.

"Please stop by take a look around and you might even end up sitting on the couch and visiting a while kinda like CHEERS," said Michael. "You never know what will happen or who you may run into."

The store also offers a bridal registry. Owners will also soon announce additional services and activities.

— Trash 2 Treasuresrmt is now open —
Be sure to visit on their Grand Opening on Nov. 1st!

Serving Nash County since 2007

We celebrate the life of your loved one

We've learned a lot over many years. Like how to present options without overwhelming. And how to meet the needs of many caring parties. People come to us in difficult times, and we respond with kindness, calmness and expertise. Our goal is to create a beautiful occasion and make you feel welcome, always. We spend our days planning with families. We stay up to date with industry developments. And we make hard times a little easier.

Ever since we opened our gates in 2007 we have approached life (and death) differently.

While some just see the end of a loved one's life as a time for grief and mourning, we prefer to think of it as a time for reflection, appreciation and even celebration. This is evident in everything we do, from the way we conduct our services to the amenities we choose to offer. We are not a burial ground. We are a close knit community dedicated to honoring, sharing and preserving the amazing and inspirational stories that are life.

Super Flame Gas Company

"Your Hometown Propane Company For 73 Years"

Looking to diversify Stalling Oil Company's thriving business, Hugh Shearin and his wife, June Stallings Shearin, bought 19 100 lb. propane cylinders for cooking gas in 1952. With the support of Mr. A.R. Stallings, June's father and company founder, the new propane operation, Super Flame (named by A.R.'s wife, Mabel) was born. June handled the books. Hugh served as Vice President, delivery man and service technician. Dedicated employees met the demands of a growing community of loyal customers. Sons-in-law Ray Brinn (President) and Brad Bobbitt (Vice President) now lead the company which prospers as a provider of propane gas for a variety of residential customers. Ray's son, Hugh, also helps lead Super Flame as Manager.

As Superflame begins its 73rd year, Ray is thankful. "We've been blessed with an opportunity to serve and the potential to do even more. We thank our customers and look forward to developing even more relationships in the future."
