NASHVILLE EXCHANGE
Café and Catering

Lisa Hattaway has owned the Nashville Exchange since it first started as a book store in 1996 in a small building on Boddie Street. Hattaway added a coffee shop in 1998, after she bought the Washington Street building. In 2001, Hattaway added the cafe.

Whether you're hungry for breakfast or lunch, you'll find an array of options at the Nashville Exchange Monday through Saturday.

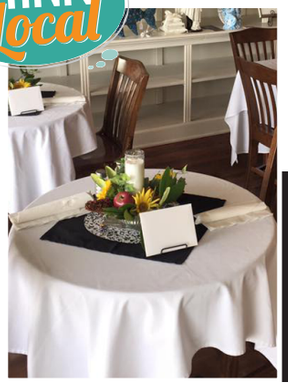

Catering is available on site at the restaurant or at other local venues. Options from a light to full menu are available. Holiday functions, baby showers, wedding receptions are just a few of the events Hattaway caters.

The Exchange is now booking holiday parties. "It's not too early to reserve your date," said Hattaway.

Super Flame Gas Company

"Your Hometown Propane Company For 74 Years"

Looking to diversify Stalling Oil Company's thriving business, Hugh Shearin and his wife, June Stallings Shearin, bought nineteen 100 lb. propane cylinders for cooking gas in 1952. With the support of Mr. A.R. Stallings, June's father and company founder, the new propane operation, Super Flame (named by A.R.'s wife, Mabel) was born. June handled the books. Hugh served as Vice President, delivery man and service technician. Dedicated employees meet the demands of a growing community of loyal customers.

Sons-in-law Ray Brinn (President) and Brad Bobbitt (Vice President) now lead the company which prospers as a provider of propane gas for a variety of residential customers. Ray's son, Hugh, also helps lead Super Flame as Manager.

As Superflame celebrates its 74th year, Ray is thankful. "We've been blessed with an opportunity to serve and the potential to do even more. We thank our customers and look forward to developing even more relationships in the future."

We celebrate the life of your loved one

We've learned a lot over many years. Like how to present options without overwhelming. And how to meet the needs of many caring parties. People come to us in difficult times, and we respond with kindness, calmness and expertise. Our goal is to create a beautiful occasion and make you feel welcome, always. We spend our days planning with families. We stay up to date with industry developments. And we make hard times a little easier.

Ever since we opened our gates in 2007 we have approached life (and death) differently. While some just see the end of a loved one's life as a time for grief and mourning, we prefer to think of it as a time for reflection, appreciation and even celebration. This is evident in everything we do, from the way we conduct our services to the amenities we choose to offer. We are not a burial ground. We are a close knit community dedicated to honoring, sharing and preserving the amazing and inspirational stories that are life.

Taking the time to design your service is a loving act, and not a difficult one. We invite you to explore the seemingly infinite number of ways to celebrate and honor a life.

An Everlasting Memory

Michelle Viverette-Strickland

An Everlasting Monument Company is locally and family owned and operated by Michelle Viverette-Strickland. Michelle has been in the monument business since 1988 and established her own company in 2006.

An Everlasting Memory has an inside and outside showroom that features all types of markers, monuments, and more.

"We have many choices from which to choose – granite available in different colors, marble or bronze markers, monuments, ledgers, benches, vases, mausoleums and urns," adds Michelle.

Michelle states, "We are here to serve families in need of a lasting tribute for their loved ones. When you walk in our office, we want you to feel like you are with family – in an environment that makes you feel like you are in your living room."

Our company offers many different pay plans, one certain to meet every family's need.

"By taking out the middle man and going to our monument company, it not only saves the family money but they are able to really personalize the memorial, by talking to professionals that have used all the tools to help with the personalization of the design instead of using standard designs."

Michelle says she feels blessed to be able to donate a number of markers and monuments each year to families who can not afford to purchase a memorial.

"The most rewarding part of ownership," Michelle concludes, "is meeting people and establishing lasting relationships. My goal is to provide excellent service as well as give back to the community."

An Everlasting Memory is also honored by receiving the following accolades from the community.
